

New ABGC Learning Scenarios

To showcase competence across the practice of genetic counseling, ABGC is launching new learning scenarios as part of the recertification process

Rationale on Continued Competence

Allows genetic counselors to determine what genetic counselors their knowledge outside need to know

Enables genetic counselors to expand of their specialty

Promotes connection and conversations to learn from colleagues

Every Year, Beginning Jan. 1, 2026

Must be completed

Receive an end of scenario summary and resources report

No right or wrong answers

Available in current recertification portal

Scenario Review Process

Created by group of genetic counseling experts No right or wrong answers, scenario is either Complete or Incomplete

Receive an educational summary with resources related to the subject matter of the scenario.

Representative of a variety of career stages and workplaces

All done through ABGC sponsoring 0.5 recertification application (0.1 per scenario) CEUs

through NSGC to apply to recertification hours